

Anticipation Guide

Forestry Chapter 15 p378

Begin by marking the statements that you agree with. After you have made your predictions, read the chapter to determine if your predictions are correct. Write the page and paragraph number so that you have evidence of your findings.

- pg 379 15-1
1. ~~You cannot control~~ <sup>led</sup> burns are a useful tool of the forestry service.
- pg 379 Para 2 Career
2. ~~All~~ Forestry jobs are in the woods. <sup>do not always involve direct contact with forests or trees.</sup>
- pg 380
3. Work is a career.
- p 385
4. Forestry careers exist in big cities. - Urban Forester
- pg 381 15-3
5. Water management ~~does not fall under the forestry umbrella.~~ <sup>is part of the forester's work.</sup>
- pg 381
6. Occupation equals job. - Job leads to an occupation.
- pg 383
7. Logging ~~requires no schooling.~~ <sup>may require a graduate degree.</sup>
- pg 384
8. A ranger may monitor over 44,000 acres.  $70 \text{ mi}^2 = 44800 \text{ ac}$
- pg 382
9. No math is needed. <sup>economics</sup>
- pg 386
10. No ~~need for~~ <sup>strong</sup> public communication or writing skills. <sup>are necessary.</sup>
- pg 386
11. Computers help trees grow. <sup>by increasing utilization</sup>
- pg 390
12. NASA cooperates with foresters. - satellite photography, forecast vegetative changes.
- pg 390
13. Jokes are great. <sup>Humor is a great personal trait.</sup>
- pg 391
14. If you do not learn you are dead.
- pg 392
15. Bat for the team. <sup>Be ABCE TO WORK WITH OTHERS.</sup>